

Internship (m/f/d)

Project management

Do your expectations for an internship have nothing to do with making coffee or filing paperwork? On the contrary, you yearn to finally get active in the language services industry, get involved and support our team with your efforts? Do you want to finally show what you're made of and, above all, gain practical experience in project management?

About us

wordinc GmbH is a language service provider located near the Hamburg harbor. Our technical expertise lies in translation in the areas of marketing, finance, economy, law and engineering. Additionally, MTPE, editing and foreign-language typesetting are also part of our service portfolio.

Your skills

- You are enrolled in a university, studying translation/linguistics/intercultural communication or a related technical field
- You have an affinity for working digitally and experience working with MS Office 365
- A good command of written and spoken German and English is preferable
- You are motivated, demonstrate commitment and a thorough, proactive working method, in combination with a strong interest in languages
- You are ambitious, communicative and a team player, always ready to chip in

What we offer

- An internship position, available immediately, in the Hamburg harbor, for at least three months—or longer!
- Work-life balance—made possible by flexible working times, our central location and hybrid working models
- Exciting projects and a thorough onboarding process
- Room for your ideas, an environment in which you can take part in shaping the company, flat hierarchies and mutual respect at all levels
- Unforgettable team and company events

For us, the most important thing is: you. Because you are amazing just as you are, no matter who you are or where you come from. We stand for diversity— people of every gender, religion and sexual orientation have a home here. We celebrate the colorful facets that you bring and are excited to learn more about you.

Welcome to our team in which everyone is welcome!

It's a match? Then simply send a short cover letter (indicating your preferred start date), your CV, and your enrollment certificate as a PDF file to us at bewerbung@wordinc.de.

